

BLS Provider Certification Options

Some positions with Saint Trinity Health Of New England require a Basic Life Support for Healthcare Providers certification from either AHA, ARC, or the Military Training Network.

If you do not have an active, unexpired BLS Provider certification, you will need to complete a course to receive it prior to starting orientation.

AHA (American Heart Association)

Find classes & more information:

<https://cpr.heart.org/en/cpr-courses-and-kits/healthcare-professional/basic-life-support-bls-training>

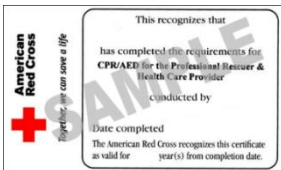

More options:

Code One Training Solutions

<https://code1web.com/>

ARC (American Red Cross)

Find classes & more information:

<https://www.redcross.org/take-a-class/bls-training/bls-for-healthcare-providers>

Military Training Network

Find classes & more information:

http://www.medtrng.com/military_training_network.htm