

Neonatal Intensive Care Unit Info Sheet

Women and Infants

Last updated: April, 2022

Quick Facts:

NM: Janet Alejandro MA, RN

Email:

jalejand@trinityhealthofne.org

Neonatal Intensive Care

Unit 28 Beds Level 3

NICU Team:

Neonatologists

Midlevels: NNP/PA

Registered Nurse

Lactation Consultant

Therapist

Pharmacist

Social Worker

RN: Patient Ratio:

1:2-3/day and night shift

Unit schedule:

12-hour shifts

Patient Population

- Preterm and term neonates in need of additional medical management and highly specialized care.

Prior Experience required/suggested

- Med/Surg
- Telemetry
- Stepdown
- Critical Care

Orientation

- Average length of orientation: 14-16 weeks.
- Additional training required: Neonatal Resuscitation & S.T.A.B.L.E. Programs.

Good to know!

- 2021 Press Ganey Guardian of Excellence Award Winner for Patient Experience!
- Safe Sleep Certification.
- Awaiting Baby Friendly Designation.
- Neonatal Transport between ministries in Connecticut starting June 27th.

Shadow Options

- Shadow opportunity offered on individual basis.

Our Mission

We, Trinity Health of New England, serve together in the spirit of the Gospel as a compassionate and transforming healing presence within our communities.

Our Core Values

- Reverence
- Commitment to Those Who are Poor
- Justice
- Stewardship